

Careers - CNC Programmer / Operator

Successful applicant will possess the following qualifications:

- A desire to WIN with a "CAN DO" attitude, drive and determination
- Uncompromising work quality/giving and accepting only the best
- Team work and knowledge sharing
- Reliability and follow through
- Our CNC Operator will be responsible to assist the Shop Manager in maximizing QUALITY and PROFIT

ACCOUNTABILITIES:

- CNC Milling Training Required in Mold and / or Die Making Industries
- Successful Completion of College Level Tool & Die / Mold Making/CNC Machining Diploma
- A good command of the spoken and written English language, strong mathematics background that includes a solid understanding of trigonometry
- Strong problem solving skills
- Assist in resolving any scheduling alterations expediently in order to maintain daily production targets
- Continuous improvement initiatives
- Contribute suggestions that would improve profitability of the shop floor and/or the company and suggest methods of improvements to the Shop Manager
- Programming/CNC Operations - Work towards being able to effectively use any of Palcam's software for programming and/or verification within the first year of employment
- Ensure parts are machined to the proper revision number
- Operate CNC equipment
- Ensure machines are kept clean on a daily basis as well as performing daily lubrication requirements

- Maintain a clean and safe work place

QUALIFICATIONS:

- CNC Milling Training Required in Mold and / or Die Making Industries
- Successful Completion of College Level Tool & Die / Mold Making/CNC Machining Diploma

PREFERRED:

- Aerospace industry experience

If your qualifications meet our criteria we invite you to forward your resume to HUMAN RESOURCES

.
We thank all interested candidates, however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.